Jeff Davis ought to vote for Horsce Greeley if he has a particle of gratitude about him, and should be pardoned in time. Henry Ward Beecher is getting fat. We don't see why he shouldn't; he gets a fat salary, has plenty to eat, and thinks there is no perpetual torment bereafter. The Anglo-American Association of London is composed of English and American residents of that city, whose purpose is to promote amity and good will between the two great countries. Tom Hughes, M. P., is President. The London Spectator is strongly in favor of a woman's university in England. It thinks that on many of the most delicate questions of modern civilization we need the fine judgment of educated Thomas A. Scott, of the Pennsylvania Central Railway, when asked if he would be a candidate for the Presidency, replied that the term was too short; but if it could be made 99 years, he would take the lease at once. Prince Pierre Bonaparte, the assassin of Victor Noir, is so little depressed by the fact of his wife opening a millinery shop in London, that he boldly declares he looks with entire resignation | Corner Queen and Kaahumanu Sts., upon the cruel fate which throws him upon his wife for support.

Dr. Daniel E. Dodge, Superintendent of the Binghamton (N. Y.,) Inebriate Asylum, sailed in the Russia, last month, for England, where he goes, by invitation, to lay before a Committee of the House of Commons the results of the experiments in this country for the cure of inebriety.

The country has no keener political seer than Mr. Garrison. He knows, as every person of any foresight knows, that the people are for Grant, and only want a chance to vote for him again and the Philadelphia Convention will give them that with wonderful unanimity.

The monastery in Erfurt, Germany, in which Martin Luther lived before he became a reformer, and which has been an orphan asylum in these days, was burned lately, together with his Bible, which was kept in the cell occupied by him, and we presume those famous ink-stains on the wall, made when he threw his inkstand at the devil.

The Superior of the new Roman Catholic order which has undertaken the education of the colored people of the South, says he found in five States that they were relapsing into Fetichism and Voodooism, with all its revolting rites, and that thousands of them are without any creed whatever. This is probably an extreme statement, however.

It is reported from Madrid that the Pope has written a letter to Senor Zorilla on the subject of the relations between Spain and the Holy See, in which he says if Spain desires to be reconciled to Mother Church, the principle of religious liberty must be modified. Tolerance of public worship the Church will not object to, but the Catholic religion must be restored to its former supremacy in "he realm, the superintendence of schools must be remitted to the priesthood, and the civil marriage and the register of births must be abolished.

The Chinese Government has decided to send 120 youths to the United States to be educated at the expense of the government. The first company of 30 will leave China during the coming summer, and will be under the charge of Yung Wing, a graduate of Monson Academy, and of the class of 1854 of Yale College. The second company of 30 will come next year, and will be under the charge of Wong Shing, another Monson graduate. The other two companies will follow at intervals of a

William Lloyd Garrison, in an article in the Independent, says :

President Grant's strong point is that he is sustained by the mass of the people, whose choice those in office cannot mistake and may most heartily sanction without any impeachment of their motives. That choice will be commandingly expressed in a delegated form at Philadelphia in June, and successfully ratified at the polls in November, all factions and so called "Liberal" devices to the contrary notwithstanding, whether made at Cincinnati or elsewhere.

Paris is in a very disturbed condition. Within a short time 45,000 Frenchman have emigrated from it, showing that there are great fears of a revolution. It was also feared that Napoleon would abdicate on the 16th of March, the day his son came of age, proclaim him Emperor, and make a descent on the Normandy coast. But this date passed off quietly, though the Channel fleet was greatly increased. A number of regiments were also sent to the south of France as a precautional measure. Everybody seems to be waiting for old M. Thiers to leave the stage, which will be the signal for a general upsetting of things.

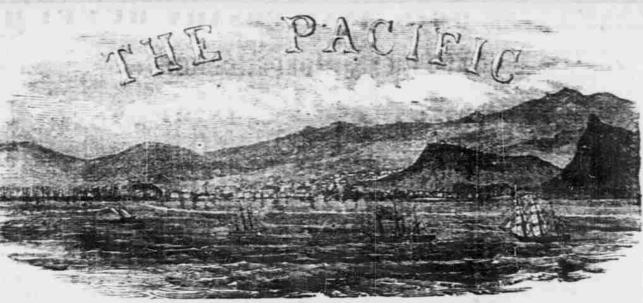

NEW YORK CHURCHES .- The Missouri Republican in the course of a long article on the churches of New York city says: "There are no less than 340 different church structures within the limits of the great city of New York, whose united capacity affords the opportunity of religious instruction to almost 300,000 persons. When we consider that the entire population of that city is given by the census of 1870 as 942,-202 souls, and that of this number perhaps onehalf are children, it will be seen that New York city may safely challenge the careful scrutiny of the Sabhath-keeping Puritans of New England, and scarcely less punctual successors of the Quaker founder of Philadelphia."

A German physician is said to have lately stated the theory that the fearful disease of smallpox originates from an excess of albuminous matter in the blood, and that this is to be prevented by the administration of common salt. It is further added that he holds views as follows:

The habits of children in indulging over-freely in sweetments is one great cause of this undue opment of albumen, and tea and coffee, if highly sugared, tend also to excite it in adults. An organic acid, such as lemon juice, is the best means of freeing the blood when clogged up with too much albumen, and by taking these simple remedies in the way of precaution, he has, for upwards of twelve years, frequented or taken up his abode in the most pestilential small-pox hospitals of Europe and South America with entire

The daily fare of an English laborer is shown in a communication published in the Daily Telegraph, purporting to have been written by an agriculturist. For fifteen years this honest fellow has worked for the same master ten hours daily, at the munificent wages of eighteen pence a day. On this he has had to support himself, a wife and three children. The wife's labor adds to these scanty resources two shillings, and one of the children earns two pence more a week. For his cottage he pays four pounds per annum. Naturally poor Hodge's fare on this income has not been precisely luxurious. For breakfast he has generally a piece of bread and water cress, " and, if we have it, a cold potato." His dinner is a " boiled dumpling, with potatoes and onions in it," and he is fain to make his supper on a cup of tea, a bit of bread, " a tiny bit of cheese (if we have it.) and for a treat, an onion." He can never "get mutten or beef, but sometimes a pig's 'pluck'-say six times a year."
